

Claiming Certification

1 General

- 1.1 This Skills and Education Group Awards<sup>1</sup> policy seeks to set out the rules and conditions for claiming certificates.
- 1.2 It is the centre's responsibility to claim achievements for its learners. Centres must have appropriate systems in place to ensure that claims are valid and approved. Invalid claims will be referred as malpractice or maladministration and centres may be subject to sanctions as a result.
- 1.3 Valid claims<sup>2</sup> can be made at any time of year. Once validated, certificates will be issued within 5 working days and will be despatched to the centre which initially enrolled the learners unless we have been notified otherwise.
- 1.4 Claims for the following qualifications which earn UCAS points must be made by 25th July in order that results for university entrance can be submitted to UCAS:
  - Level 3 Foundation Diploma in Art Design and Media (50084768);
  - Level 3 Diploma in Fashion Retail (50115406);
  - Level 3 Diploma in Fabrication and Welding Practice (60322597).

2 How to claim Qualifications / Units

- 2.1 Claiming grades
  - 2.1.2 Centres must confirm final registration by claiming through the online registration system (ORS).
  - 2.1.2 Centres must input the assessment grading decisions i.e. F (fail), P (pass) and, where applicable to the qualification, M (merit) or D (distinction) for each unit and/or final grade.
  - 2.1.3 Centres claiming a full qualification using units already awarded through either exemption or credit transfer must enter E or CT against the appropriate units.

---

<sup>1</sup> ABC Awards is a brand of Skills and Education Group Awards, a recognised awarding organisation and part of the Skills and Education Group. Any reference to ABC Awards, its registered address, company or charity number should be deemed to mean the Skills and Education Group Awards.

<sup>2</sup> A valid claim is a) when assessment and internal and external moderation have been completed satisfactorily or b) when assessment and internal moderation have been completed and direct claims have been approved and claims have been internally quality assured.

- 2.1.4 Learners who have withdrawn from the qualification and do not intend to complete some or all of the units must be marked as withdrawn (W).
- 2.1.5 Learners who have not completed all the units on which they were enrolled but are to continue will remain as registered (R) for a period of 12 months after the course end date submitted by the Centre. Centres must, therefore, contact centresupport@skillsedugroup.co.uk to discuss and amend the course end date or transfer the learner(s) to another course if the Centre is prepared to continue to support those learners beyond that date.

2.2 Adding Additional Units at the Claim Stage

- 2.2.1 If learners have completed units on which they are yet to be enrolled, this can be done at claiming. At this stage an invoice will be raised for all additional units registered and emailed to the centre's Exams Officer (cc Finance department).
- 2.2.2 Centres must note that if they claim for any additional units (including those through credit transfer or exemption and those units did not form part of the external moderation activity, we reserve the right to undertake additional moderation for which there will be a charge.

2.3 Registering additional Learners at the Claim Stage

- 2.3.1 Centres must first enrol the learners against the appropriate course ID before a claim can be made. An invoice will be raised at this stage.
- 2.3.2 If those learners were not available for selection during external moderation, we reserve the right to sample further evidence for which there will be a charge

2.4 Claiming a different Qualification

- 2.4.1 Learners who achieve more or fewer units than those initially registered may be entitled to an alternative qualification. Where centres believe this to be the case, units are the same and no certification claims have been made, they may transfer the learners to an alternative qualification via the ORS system.

3 Incorrect / Fraudulent Claims

- 3.1 Claims for certification that are proved invalid or fraudulent will be treated by ABC in accordance with its policy on Malpractice and Maladministration and proven cases may result in sanctions against the centre. Serious cases will be notified to the Regulators<sup>3</sup> and other awarding organisations / bodies which may have an interest in the qualifications claimed.

---

<sup>3</sup> Ofqual in England; Qualifications Wales; CCEA Regulation in NI

4 Checking Certificates

- 4.1 Centres are requested to check all certificates for accuracy before releasing to learners. Any incorrect certificates must be notified and returned to us immediately. See paragraph 5 below.
- 4.2 It is the centre's responsibility to ensure that every effort is made to deliver certificates to learners without undue delay. Any enquiries received from learners will be referred to the centre.
- 4.3 Unclaimed certificates.
Centres should follow their own policy on the retention / disposal of unclaimed certificates.

5 Certificate Re-issue

- 5.1 A certificate is re-issued where:
  - 5.1.1 certificates are lost in transit between us and the Centre;
We will investigate the loss with the postal / courier service and bear the cost of any replacement. If certificates are re-issued and the originals are later recovered, the re-issued certificates must be returned to us.
  - 5.1.2 certificates are lost in transit between the Centre and the learner;
The centre is responsible for investigating the loss with the postal / courier service and will bear the cost of any re-issue. If certificates are re-issued and an original is later recovered, the re-issued certificate must be returned to us.
  - 5.1.3 certificates are damaged in transit between us and the Centre;
These must be returned to us with the original packaging before certificates can be re-issued. We will bear the cost of re-issue.
  - 5.1.4 certificates are damaged in transit between the Centre and the Learner;
These must be returned to us with the original packaging before certificates can be re-issued. The centre will bear the cost of re-issue.
  - 5.1.5 certificates have been printed with incorrect information / spelling errors;
Certificates must be returned to us before certificates can be re-issued. The centre will bear the cost of re-issue if the error is theirs.
  - 5.1.6 centres have made an error when claiming;
Certificates must be returned to us with full details of how the error occurred before certificates can be re-issued. Payment for re-issue will be charged to the centre. All such errors will be logged as maladministration against the centre and the centre's Quality Manager will be requested to investigate the reasons. Persistent failure to rectify such errors may result in sanctions against the Centre.

6 Replacement Certificates / Letters of Verification

- 6.1 We will issue a replacement certificate for any award made after September 2005 and will issue a letter of verification for awards made between 1999 and September 2005 subject to the request being verified.
- 6.2 A certificate may be replaced or a letter of verification issued when:
- an individual has lost the original certificate;
  - an individual has damaged the original certificate.
- 6.3 We will not issue a replacement certificate or letter of verification with a name change as a result of marriage or name change by deed poll.<sup>4</sup>
- 6.4 Requests for replacement certificates or letters of verification can be made by centres or individual learners and must be made on form R6 Replacement Certificate Application available on the website.
- 6.5 All claims for replacement certificates / verification letters are checked and authenticated before replacements / letters are issued and are subject to a fee, payable in advance.
- 6.6 All such certificates will bear the word 'Replacement' in line with the Regulators' Conditions of Recognition.

7 Authentication of Certificates / Letters of Verification

- 7.1 To minimise the risk of fraudulent copies of certificates our certificates include a number of security features.
- 7.2 We will consider any requests to authenticate award documents and will investigate any potential claims of counterfeit awards. All such enquiries will be processed in line with data protection requirements and should be made to the Centre Support Team on 0115 8541 620 or emailed to centresupport@skillsedugroup.co.uk

8 Quality Assurance

- 8.1 This policy and guidance is reviewed annually to ensure it continues to meet the needs of our Regulators<sup>5</sup>.

---

<sup>4</sup> Other exceptional circumstances may apply

<sup>5</sup> Ofqual in England; Qualifications Wales; CCEA in Northern Ireland